You are responsible to be at the classes listed (whether teaching or assisting).

Life happens, but classes need to go on. If you run into a scheduling conflict or something comes up that will delay or prevent you from making a scheduled class, it is your responsibility to find a suitable replacement or swap (from the list below) and inform the office of the swap (via email) as soon as possible. Try to keep swapping, etc. to a minimum as the classes you are scheduled to teach/assist with were chosen for your own best development in mind.

Also, if swapping, please try to switch for the same level/type of class, and if you were scheduled to assist Sensei, try to swap for a different class assisting with Sensei.
